

LINDSAY LANG ROBINSON

641 E. CARMEN, FRESNO, CALIFORNIA 93728

559-916-6742 ▪ historyteach1972@gmail.com ▪ www.Robinson811.com

OBJECTIVE

My goal is to educate and serve the students of my community in the Social Sciences. Further, I hope to grow as a professional in a collegial and collaborative professional learning community.

EDUCATION

Master of Arts – History with a Teaching Option, Spring 2009

Single Subject Teaching Credential, Spring 1998 Fresno State University (CLEAR 2003)

Cross-Cultural Language Academic Development Certificate (CLAD) Fall 2002

Bachelor of Arts Degree in History, Fresno State University, May 1996

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Social Science Instructor/Department Chair - July 1999 - Present

Firebaugh High School ▪ 1976 Morris Kyle Drive

Duties: I have taught various courses: 11th grade U.S. History, 10th grade World History, 9th grade World Geography, and Advanced Placement U.S. History. I also serve as the Department Chair, Master Teacher and a Beginning Teacher Support and Assessment (BTSA) Support provider, and Master Teacher to student teachers in addition to regular activities and duties. I have served as the school WASC chair for the last 3 cycles of accreditation.

Additional Activities:

Chair: WASC Accreditation Process: 2010, 2014, 2016

Reader: CSET Exams, National Evaluation Systems Golden State Examination. Sacramento County Office of Education. August 2000, 2002

Member: TAH Master's Cohort (2006-2009) Clovis American History/Technology Project

Support Provider: BTSA 2002 -Present

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITIONS

Recipient: Teacher's Care Award (AMA, Fresno) 2014

Teacher of the Year – Firebaugh High School (2011)